We have several new announcements!

The Department of Building Safety has opened two locations in Pocatello and Coeur d'Alene to present the ATC-20/RVS-154/ROVER classes via video-teleconference broadcasting from their Meridian location! The Pocatello and Coeur d'Alene classes will be on May 29th only. The Meridian class will still be held May 29-30th but will include classroom exercises on May 30th. Registration for all classes has been combined on the calendar.

Registration is now open for IOEM's third offering of the National Emergency Management Basic Academy this Fall in Hayden, Idaho!

Finally, the Center for Domestic Preparedness will be delivering the Field Force Operations course this September on Gowen Field. This class is a unique opportunity for state and local law enforcement to prepare for and mitigate threat incidents involving civil disorder.
