COLLEGE OF SOUTHERN IDAHO TRUSTEE ZONE 4 (Vote for One)	The Legislature writes the laws of the state under which the state agencies adopt agency rules. By statute, agencies make rules that only interpret and implement these laws, and the legislature reserves the authority to review and reject agency rules if a rule is contrary to the intent of the law.
<input type="radio"/> Jan Mittleider	The Legislature's ability to approve or reject agency rules is an important aspect of the separation of powers, because these rules have the force and effect of law. The Legislature currently oversees that rulemaking process by accepting or rejecting agency rules. The proposed amendment confirms and protects the Legislature's practice to authorize agency rulemaking, and to accept or reject agency rules.
