CHAPTER 2
DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

2-1. GENERAL TERMS
For the purposes of this Ordinance, certain terms or words used herein are defined and interpreted as follows:

A. The word “person” includes a firm, association, organization, partnership, trust, company, corporation, or individual.
B. The present tense includes the future tense; the singular includes the plural; and the plural includes the singular.
C. The words “shall” and “must” indicate mandatory requirements; the word “may” indicates an optional requirement; and the word “should” indicates a preferred requirement.
D. The words “used” and “occupied” include the words “intended”, “designed”, “arranged to be used”, or “occupied”.
E. The term “erected” means “constructed”, “altered”, “moved”, or “repaired”.
F. The term “Administrator” is synonymous with the term “Planning and Zoning Administrator”.

2-2. DEFINITIONS

ACCESSORY BUILDING
A secondary building, the use of which is incidental, but similar, to that of the principal building, and which is located on the same plot, and which has a permitted use for the particular zone in which it is located.

ACCESSORY EASEMENT
A limited use easement across two or more adjacent properties which allows occasional vehicular access to otherwise inaccessible areas by either property owner at any time.

ACCESSORY USE
The use of land or all, or any part, of a building which is accessory to, or incidental to, the principal, authorized use of the premises. Such accessory uses ordinarily do not require permits.

ADMINISTRATOR
The Jerome County Planning and Zoning Administrator.

AGENCY
The local, state or federal governmental entity, department, office, or administrative unit responsible for carrying out regulations

AGRICULTURAL LAND A-1
The requirements of this Ordinance shall not be construed so as to deprive the owner of agricultural land of the full and complete use of said land for the production of any agricultural products.
AGRICULTURAL PRODUCT
Any food or fiber produced by an activity usually considered to be an agricultural endeavor as indicated in the definition of "AGRICULTURE" in this chapter of this Ordinance.

AGRICULTURE
Tilling of soil, horticulture, floriculture, forestry, fisheries, viticulture, raising crops, livestock, farming, dairying, livestock confinement operations and animal husbandry including all activities customarily accessory and incidental thereto. The definition excludes slaughterhouses, fertilizer works and bone yards. Retail sales on the premises of goods and products raised on the premises shall also be considered as being within the definition of agriculture.

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCT TRANSFER POINT
A storage area not part of a specific farm or farming operation where plant based agricultural products from one or more sources are taken for the sole purpose of being stored pending further transferal, by way of truck, train, or other forms of transportation.

AIRCRAFT MAINTENANCE, REPAIR
Repair, replacement and refurbishment of aircraft, aircraft engines and aircraft systems in compliance with Federal Aviation regulations.

AIRFIELD, PRIVATE
Any runway, any area, or other facility used privately for the landing and taking-off aircraft, including all accessory taxiways, aircraft storage and tie down areas, hangars, and other necessary buildings.

AIRPORT
Any runway, any area, or other facility used publicly and/or commercially for the landing and taking-off of aircraft, including all accessory taxiways, aircraft storage and tie down areas, hangars, and other necessary buildings.

AIRCRAFT REBUILDING
Rebuilding, restoration and major alterations of aircraft, aircraft engines and aircraft systems in compliance with Federal Aviation regulations.

ALCOHOL AND DRUG REHABILITATION FACILITY
Those facilities for the residential and/or outpatient treatment of substance abuse as a rehabilitation service for the treatment of adults or adolescents, NOT both in the same facility. Coed programs will require separate physical structures, allowing these facilities in A-2 Agriculture and Commercial General Zones.

ANIMAL CLINIC OR VETERINARY OFFICE
Any building, or portion thereof, which is designed or used for the care and treatment of cats, dogs, sheep, cattle, horses, or other animals in which clipping, bathing, boarding, and other veterinary services are rendered to animals and pets.
ANIMAL CONFINEMENT AREAS
Individual areas used for the specific purpose of animal confinement, such as, but not by way of limitation, corrals, pens, stalls, stables, barns, parlors, etc.

ANIMAL OPERATION
A commercial operation that involves the raising, housing and/or slaughtering of animals for the purpose of obtaining or processing certain animal product, such as but not by way of limitation, dairy, eggs, meat, fur, or other like products, and includes among other things, all coops, barns, pens, parlors, manure and liquid waste storage areas, and dead animal disposal areas used in conjunction with the operation and that are on the same site. Adjacent sites under common ownership are considered the same site or same facility for purposes of this definition.

ANIMAL UNIT
A unit of measure wherein one animal unit is equal to:

1. One thousand (1000) pounds of Cervidae (elk, deer), Bovidae (cattle, bison, goats, sheep), Equidae (horses), Camelidae (llama, alpacas, camels), or any other kind of large animal livestock that is not specifically mentioned within this paragraph; or
2. Four hundred (400) pounds of Suidae (pigs, boar); or
3. Two hundred (200) pounds of poultry or other birds, mink, chinchilla, rabbit or any other small animal livestock not specifically mentioned within this paragraph.

Calculating an animal unit for a particular kind of livestock, the weight of such livestock is determined by tables of weights typical for that particular kind of animal. For purposes of this definition, large animal livestock is defined as any species of animal whose average weight at full growth is more than fifty (50) pounds; and small animal livestock as any species of animal whose average weight at full growth is fifty (50) pounds or less.
